About WNDD

The U.S. Department of Commerce, Economic Development Administration designated the Western Nevada Development District (WNDD) as the first Nevada Economic Development District (EDD) in November of 1983. Today, WNDD is one of two EDDs within the state with more than 400 districts located throughout the country.

The WNDD territory covers nine counties and seven cities of the northern and western part of the state. This includes the Reno Sparks Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA) and Carson City, the capitol of Nevada. The Board of Directors includes elected representatives from the counties, cities, and tribes, their designated staff members and business representatives. The Board of Directors and the Executive Board are the governing bodies responsible for executing the mission of WNDD.

WNDD offers participation opportunities for universities, community colleges, labor unions, non-profits and local industry leaders to join the organization through Associate Memberships. These partners are highly valued for building regional collaboration and creating a more cohesive Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS). Through direct Member input, the CEDS implementation is focused on the requirements of individual communities with a regional approach.

MISSION STATEMENT:

WNDD's mission is to work in regional collaboration with public and private entities to create an environment within which economic development can occur.

Planning For The Future...Today!

A roadmap to progress and prosperity, the Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS) is the cornerstone of WNDD's mission to diversify and strengthen the regional economy. The CEDS is updated annually to address any modifications in strategies due to unforeseen conditions that affect achieving goals. The 2023 CEDS update refreshes the data in the 2020-2025 report.

After the five year period addressed in the 2020-2025 Strategy has passed, it is analyzed and reviewed in its entirety, and modified, producing a new Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy 2025-2030. This becomes the roadmap for economic development for next five years.

The CEDS is a locally based, regionally driven economic development planning process and document that successfully engages the region's community leaders, private sector partners, and stakeholders. Together, they work toward creating a long-term economic development strategy to promote an environment that encourages businesses, industries, and workforce in the region and promote a vibrant, resilient, and sustainable economy.

The EDA invests in public works, economic adjustment assistance, technical assistance, and long-term planning. EDA investment priorities enhance regional competitiveness and support long-term diversification and development of the regional economy.

EDA Investment Priorities

1. Equity
2. Recovery and Resilience
3. Workforce Development
4. Manufacturing
5. Technology-Based Economic Development
6. Environmentally-Sustainable Development
7. Exports and Foreign Direct Investment (FDI)

As part of the EDA priorities, WNDD looks for ways to address the unserved, underserved geographic areas and provide them with viable economic opportunities. WNDD continues to work with County and City jurisdictions on needed infrastructure projects by providing technical support on grant applications. Additionally, WNDD encourages building diversity and resiliency with the Governor's Office of Economic Development, the University of Reno-University Center for Economic Development, and the Regional Development Authorities in the District.

Key Economic Challenges in the Region

WNDD continues to build partnerships with regional stakeholders to address the challenges in the District. By collaborating with government leaders, regional development authorities, the University Center for Economic Development, private businesses, industry leaders, WNDD assists the district in making needed changes impacting the economy.

THE FOUR KEY CHALLENGING AREAS:

1. Limited broadband connectivity, especially in rural areas
2. Limited workforce availability, training, and wrap around services
3. Limited access to adequate medical care in rural areas
4. Limited housing/affordable housing

CEDS Framework

This wheel represents the framework of the four target areas and twelve goals that are the foundation of the WNDD CEDS. Economic Resiliency, Infrastructure, Quality of Life, and Government and Organizational Capacity are the cornerstones of the WNDD CEDS. When all target areas are addressed simultaneously, economic growth occurs. Economic resiliency is created when all partners in the region work towards the same outcome: Long Term Regional Economic Sustainability.

ECONOMIC RESILIENCY = LONG TERM REGIONAL ECONOMIC SUSTAINABILITY

TARGET AREA 1:

Economic Resiliency

The region can withstand, prevent, and quickly recover from shocks to its underlying economic base, by engaging in activities, programs, and steady-state and responsive initiatives.

WNDD and its partners engage in initiatives that promote positive impacts on the economy and develop programs that bolster the long-term economic durability of the region. ## A Region Connected

The Western Nevada Development District's region includes both urban and rural areas, large cities, and millions of acres of public lands. As a result, the region often mimics the state's demographic and economic trends, drawing attention to opportunities and potential threats.

Commerce and transportation connect the region's various communities, making it critical that region works together to preserve a high quality of life and opportunities for all residents.

Like the rest of the state, the region's population is expected to grow over the next decade. This spurs greater economic activity, and a need for infrastructure, education, housing, and other services that promote and deliver prospects to residents.

The region continues to diversify to build a sustainable economy. Imperative to the process is to begin with a clear understanding of the region's communities from a demographic, geographic, and economic perspective to develop a Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS) that supports the region's goals.

Geographic Profile

Nevada is geographically unique in how much of its acreage is devoted to public lands. As a whole, Nevada covers 110,567 square miles, making it the 7th largest state in the nation by area. However, only 14% of the land is private, which makes Nevada the 10th smallest state in acreage available. In addition, the 15,479 square miles of developable private land is not contiguous.

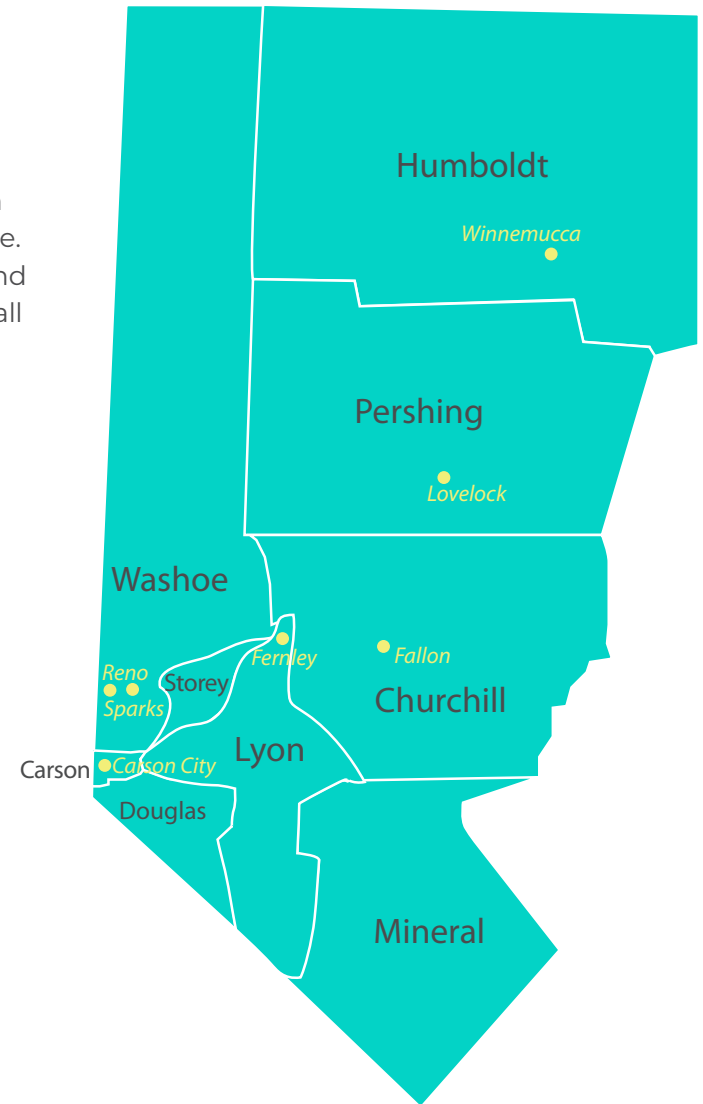

The Western Nevada Development District boundaries includes: Carson City, Churchill, Douglas, Humboldt, Lyon, Mineral, Pershing, Storey, and Washoe counties, and the cities of Fallon, Fernley, Lovelock, Reno, Sparks and Winnemucca.

More than 80% of the WNDD region is public lands. Mineral County boasts the highest percentage of public lands at 94.4%, while Storey County has the least with 9.5%. The major thoroughfares that connect the region Interstates 80 and 580, and U.S. Highways 50/50A, 95/95A and 395.

Going east from the Sierra Nevada, the WNDD region is characterized by mountain ranges, generally running north and south, separated by broad valleys. The region is bounded on the north by Oregon and Idaho, and to the west by Lake Tahoe and California. To the east lies Utah and south lies the remainder of Nevada.

Nevada is part of the Great Basin, a desert environment. The region falls within a high desert environment and has an arid climate. Nevada is the driest state in the country, and the WNDD region has average yearly rainfall that ranges from 20.24 inches in Douglas County to 8.25 inches in Mineral County.

More Connected Than Ever

The Megapolitan Theory and How It Impacts Western Nevada's Economy

almost 8,000 people

location

In the “Nevada’s Megapolitan Clusters” by Robert E. Lang and Jaewon Lim, Brookings Mountain West—UNLV, 2020, report, Nevada is covered by three Megapolitan Clusters. The Western Nevada Development District is located in the Northern Nevada Sierra Pacific Megapolitan Cluster. The District’s economy is directly linked to Northern California’s economy that includes the bay area and Sacramento.

WNDD is also connected to the other two megapolitan clusters, the Eastern Nevada Mountain Megapolitan Cluster that extends all the way to Denver, Colorado and the Southern Nevada Southwest Triangle Megapolitan Cluster that includes Southern Nevada, Southern California and most of Arizona, and extends to the Mexican border.

The District’s location continues to benefit the north and western counties and cities due to the proximity to these larger trade regions. WNDD’s proximity to California with the 6th highest GDP in the world, makes this location ideal for businesses looking to expand operations.
